Overview

An intimate Hong Kong cabaret series where local artists bare their souls through song, story and unforgettable performance

Since May 2025, WestK Cabaret Nights has been carving out a small but vibrant corner of the city for cabaret.

An intimate Hong Kong cabaret series where local artists bare their souls through song, story and unforgettable performance

Since May 2025, WestK Cabaret Nights has been carving out a small but vibrant corner of the city for cabaret.

On selected weeknights, the Tea House Theatre becomes a place where performers try new ideas, revisit old favourites and share work that feels personal, unpolished in the best way and unmistakably Hong Kong. Audiences sit within arm's reach, trading energy with the artists and discovering moments that hit closer to home than expected.

The programme reaches its finale season from February to March 2026. Returning artists pick up threads from earlier chapters of their journeys, while new voices step into the cabaret for the first time. The mix creates an evening that feels less like a formal showcase and more like a gathering – a roomful of people meeting through music, humour and stories that have lived a little.

This closing season leads into WestK Cabaret Festival 2026, Hong Kong's first dedicated cabaret festival, bringing together homegrown and international artists for a milestone event. Full programme details will be announced in March 2026. Stay tuned.
